

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT EL PASO
2006-2007 REQUEST FOR DEPENDENCY OVERRIDE

(To be used only by students who are requesting override consideration for the first time)

NAME: _____ SSN: _____ / _____ / _____ EMAIL: _____

If you believe you have special circumstances that impact your dependency status for the 2006-2007 academic year, please complete this form, supply all of the documentation requested, and submit it to the UTEP Office of Student Financial Aid. Typically, special circumstances have to do with situations at home that force an otherwise dependent student to become independent. Do not omit information or documentation, as this will delay the processing. Unless told otherwise, students must first send off a paper FAFSA to the Department of Education, then apply for a dependency override. Applications without the required documents may be denied based upon insufficient documentation. The Assistant Director of processing will review your special circumstances request and you will be notified of the results with further instructions as soon as possible, thru mail or e-mail (if one is provided).

Notes:

- Not being claimed on a parent's tax return, or not living with parents is not a basis for considering a student independent.
- With few exceptions, we can only consider those with documented proof of having lived on their own for at least one year from the time of request.

- A. Letter from the student detailing the special circumstances that make the student independent from parents. Please explain the following:
  1. The nature of your relationship with your parents;
  2. The whereabouts of parents and when you last had contact with them;
  3. Why you cannot obtain information and/or support from your parents and
  4. How you have been supporting yourself this year.
- B. Two different notarized statements from professionals (teacher, counselor, clergy, social worker) familiar with the situation, further outlining and verifying the special circumstances. Statements must include addresses, telephone numbers and preferably be on letterhead.
- C. Signed copy of your 2005 Income Tax Form.
- D. Copy of your current medical insurance card (if any)
- E. Copy of your current car insurance card (if any).
- F. Complete a 2006-2007 paper FAFSA and mail to the Department of Education. Unless you are submitting this before February 14, 2006.
- G. Copies of lease, rent receipts, notarized statement, or copy of utility bills as proof that you have been on your own for at least one year.
- H. 2006-2007 Verification worksheet, which can be found at our website: <http://academics.utep.edu/finaid> click on Prospective or Current Students, then Forms.
- I. All portions of this form.
