Course Description
This course is an introduction to the visual arts, and will cover basic concepts, terminology and styles in a manner intended to accommodate a variety of learning styles. Students will be exposed to several historical western and non-western cultural styles of art in a variety of media, including architecture. Prior to the art historical study of these styles, students will devote several weeks to the study of the fundamental concepts and terminology of art, as well as methods of making and issues surrounding the creation of art. Students will also visit an exhibition in the Rubin Center for the Visual Arts.

Although frequently used to fulfill freshman core requirements, Art Appreciation is geared to students at all levels, from all academic disciplines. Students need not have had any prior experience in art to succeed in this class, and there are no pre-requisites for enrollment. However, regular attendance at lectures and participation in class discussions and activities are fundamental to an active appreciation of the material presented in this course.

Course Format
Course material will be presented in a lecture format, utilizing visual support in the form of slides, videos, and works exhibited at the Rubin Center for Visual Arts, and other venues.

Course Prerequisite Information
There are no prerequisites for enrollment in this course.

Course Goals and Objectives
The following goals and objectives have been targeted for this course. Students will gain:
experience in the formal and iconographic analysis of art objects.
a fundamental understanding of the concepts and terminology of art.
a knowledge of the methods of making and issues surrounding the creation of art.
a knowledge of some of the major monuments of western and non-western art.
a developing awareness of the significance of individual and historical styles and the manner in which they reflect personal and cultural values.

Course Outcomes
Students who successfully complete this course will have a basic understanding of the nature of art, the issues surrounding the creation of art and the ways in which art objects and monuments reflect their respective temporal and cultural contexts. They will also have an introductory level knowledge of art historical study of specific works and cultural styles. The study of the visual and symbolic language of art, including the visual elements, principles of design and iconography, will enable students to formally and conceptually analyze works of art; the result will be a heightened sense of visual/perceptual awareness and a marked improvement in critical thinking and communication skills. In learning to appreciate the visual arts, students will explore the nature of self-expression and the emotional aspects of visual communication and will experience greater self-awareness.

Course Requirements

Exams (50% of your final grade)
There will be four exams given in this course. All exams will include questions that require the student to refer to images, as well as questions that do not refer to slides. The objective format will be used, and tests may include slide identifications, multiple choice, true/false or matching type questions. Tentative dates for the first three examinations appear in the following course calendar. Any changes regarding these dates will be announced in class well in advance of the actual test date. Each of the four exams covers a different section of the lecture/text material and comprises 12.5% of your overall grade in this course.

Participation (50% of your final grade)
Participation is a vitally important component of each student’s overall performance in this course. The participation grade consists of scores on assignments performed independently. Participation assignments are indicated in the course calendar and will be discussed during class. Details of each individual assignment can be found posted on Blackboard. All participation assignments are due on time, and can be written in Spanish. Assignments should be turned in electronically on Blackboard only. Assignments turned in by e-mail won’t be graded. Assignments turned in after the dead line will have 5 points deducted for every day that the assignment is late. Assignments will be only accepted for the next 7 days for a grade. Assignments turned after the 4th day will receive a grade of 50 no matter what, if the assignment is not turned in it will be graded with a zero.

When working on your assignments consider the visual elements and design principles. As the semester progresses and you have more knowledge on the subject, your assignments should show that and be more complex and precise with the Principles of Design and Elements of Art. The more elements and principles you state correctly, as well as art terms learned during class, the better your grade. Start your assignments with time in advance. Do not leave them to the last minute. This will affect the quality of your work and your grade.

Assignment 1
Introduction Survey to be completed and returned. Agreement form to be signed and returned. Submit on Blackboard.

Assignment 2
Independent Visit to an Exhibition/Reaction on a Video. Discuss your reaction to the show in general and pick one work of art to do a Formal Analysis. Create a video and submit on Blackboard.
Visit only one of these two venues: El Paso Museum of Art or the Rubin Gallery.

Assignment 3
Hands on/Studio work. Choose a media from the ones discussed during class and create a work of art. Record your progress and technique with images as well as the finish piece. Submit on Blackboard.
Assignment 4

Assignment 5
Cultural EVENT in the arts. Not crafts. Attend a cultural event that is happening right now in the El Paso/Juarez/Las Cruces area. Report your experience in writing. Submit on Blackboard.

DO NOT EMAIL ME your assignment. You won’t get a grade if you do. Prepare with time and do not give me any “flash drive,” “computer,” “Blackboard” or any other type of excuses.

Extra Credit
All the pop-up quizzes done during class count as extra credit points that will be added to the exam grades. Extra credit questions may also be present on the exams. Make-ups for these opportunities won’t be offered. No other extra credit will be given in this class.
