The UTEP Inter-American Jewish Studies Program and the Graduate Student English Association Present

Dr. Eric Sundquist
"Writing the Holocaust"

Thursday
March 31st, 2016 at 7 PM
Blumberg Auditorium at the UTEP Library

This event is free and open to the public. Free parking in the Sun Bowl Parking Garage.

Eric Sundquist will discuss diaries, memoirs, poetry, and fiction written both during and in the immediate aftermath of the Holocaust.

Eric Sundquist is the Andrew W. Mellon Professor of the Humanities at Johns Hopkins University. He is the author or editor of thirteen books, including King’s Dream (2009) and Strangers in the Land: Blacks, Jews, Post-Holocaust America (2005), which received the Weinberg Judaic Studies Institute Book Award.

This event is sponsored by the Inter-American Jewish Studies Program and it is made possible by a generous grant from The Jewish Federation of Greater El Paso, Provost’s Office, The Liberal Arts Honors Program, The Graduate School, The English Department, The Aaron Wechter Memorial Scholarship, The Shiloff Family Foundation, Mrs. Felicia Rubin, Mr. Gerald and Mrs. Stanlee Rubin.