Take Back the Night

Please join us in saying “NO” to violence at UTEP’s annual Take Back the Night program on September 15, 2005

Art Exhibit Opening 5pm Glass Gallery (Fox Fine Arts)
Guest Speakers/Candlelight Vigil 6pm Geology Lawn
Clothesline Project 8am to 8pm Geology Lawn

Ana Castillo will be the featured speaker.

Ana Castillo is an acclaimed poet, novelist, editor, and translator. She is also a frequent contributor to numerous national magazines and periodicals. Apart from her own published works, Castillo’s books and writings have appeared in numerous anthologies in the United States and abroad (in English and in translation). Castillo’s writings have been the subject of numerous scholarly investigations and publications in the United States and abroad.

We will also have booths with information from different areas of the community on health and violence awareness.

Volunteers are needed
To Volunteer or for more information or questions please contact:
UTEP University Counseling Center
104 Union West
Phone: 747-5302 / fax: 747-5393
Email: lmelendez2@utep.edu

Contributors
College of Education,
Center for Law and Border Studies, Student Development Center, Alumni Association, ADVANCE Program,
Chicano Studies Program, Miner Village, Department of History,
Center for Civic Engagement, Department of Political Science, African American Studies Program, Career Services,
Department of Theatre, Dance and Film, Women’s Studies Program, Athletics

Sponsors
University Counseling Center, Women’s Resource Center, STARS, Center Against Family Violence